At Evergreen, we believe...

★ Each student is capable of meeting or exceeding academic standards by regularly achieving challenging and attainable goals.

★ Every child deserves the opportunity to be educated in a way that prepares them for college and/or careers.

★ There are NO Excuses for poor effort on the part of all stakeholders, and it begins with the adults!

★ Our collective commitment to this culture can neutralize challenges and change lives in mighty ways.
Our Mission

Together, we ensure every student, without excuse and without exception, will meet or exceed proficiency in reading, language, and math.

Evergreen Expectations

Eagles SOAR
Eagles Take Flight and SOAR!

Safety: To participate and take leadership in promoting attentive practices which protect themselves and others from danger and/or harmful risk (physical/emotional/intellectual) in all areas of the school.

Ownership: To believe that taking action is not someone else's responsibility. You, as an individual, are accountable for your participation and the quality of an outcome, even when you're working with others.

Achievement: To attain short and long-term educational, social-emotional, and behavioral goals.

Respect: To allow yourself and others to do and be their best.; to create a mutually considerate, polite and cooperative atmosphere between all individuals involved within our school.
