Bethel School District Transportation requires that all preschool and kindergarten students being transported by bus have a responsible person to receive them at the door of the bus. All persons, to include the parent and/or guardians, receiving the student must have picture identification to ensure safety of students. Please be sure that you ALWAYS have identification on you as a substitute could be on your child's route on any given day. If you want your kindergarten student to walk home with a sibling, designation of sibling is required.

- Please allow my kindergarten child to walk home with sibling(s) (listed below)

- A designated adult will be in attendance to receive my child. (listed below)
